PRESS QUOTES

'A gifted musician'
- NPR's Scott Simon

'Her melodic and buoyant sound harkens back to the works of Elton John, Billy Joel and Carole King'
- POPMATTERS

"...the rock-solid singing, keyboards and songwriting of actress Alicia Witt, serving sharply personal, boldly melodic pop originals in the Carole King/Billy Joel vein... the repertoire of snappy, resilient, emancipated-woman anthems and touching lost-and-found love ballads.."
- Jonathan Takiff, Philadelphia Inquirer

"a piano-pop gem that sounds by turns like "Grey Seal"-era Elton John, an alt-universe Fiona Apple and a film-noir chanteuse notching her nights in cigarette burns on the fallboard."
- Nashville Scene, review of Revisionary History

'...it's just from the heart. The song I keep coming back to is 'Always Tuesday', which has a Carole King/James Taylor vibe about it.'
- Entertainment Focus, on 'Witness'

"... her mature and telling lyrics resonate with deep meaning and purpose...her probing words are intimate, candid, confessional "
